

Regulatory Chemist

KVK seeks Regulatory Chemist in Newtown, PA to perform analytical testing of raw materials, in-process materials, stability samples, finished products and product development products using various analytical techniques; research and gather regulatory/scientific information/data; evaluate, verify and validate new analytical methods for drug products and drug substances as per FDA, USP and ICH guidelines; identify, test and analyze impurities in raw and finished materials using preparative scale-up, LC-MS/MS, NMR and IR; calibrate/qualify advanced analytical instruments such as UPLCs, HPLCs, GCs, AAS, UV/Vis, Spectrophotometers, Dissolution Apparatus, Laser Diffraction, Particle Size Analyzers etc.; ensure regulatory compliance in laboratory setting & maintain laboratory records/logs and other pertinent documentation; document all performed lab tests/analysis as per cGMP, USFDA and 21 CFR 211.194 guidelines etc. among others. Bachelor's degree or foreign equivalent in Chemistry/Pharmaceutical Science or related field and two (2) years relevant work experience required. Mail resume to HR Manager, Ref: Reg, KVK-Tech Inc., 110 Terry Drive, Ste. 200, Newtown, PA 18940.