

QA CHEMIST

KVK seeks QA Chemist in Newtown, PA to conduct core quality system audits including investigations of any deviations, change control and CAPA; perform quality assurance analysis of raw materials, in-process materials; perform stability analysis; conduct identification tests of raw materials as instructed using UVNis, Spectrophotometer, NIR etc. and perform assay of finished products using HPLC and Titrimetry; perform scientific and analytical testing of products for stability & prepare stability study reports to ensure robustness of product and validation of shelf-life; compile scientific research and development reports, batch records, PDR and ANDA submissions in compliance with 21 CFR and prepare technical reports on compliance with 21 CFR regulations in manufacturing/packaging processes; develop and design IQ/OQ/PQ protocols according to 21 CFR for all equipment as per VMP; draft SOPs; conduct final inspections of Batch Manufacturing Records for product release; test parameters for tablets including hardness testing, friability testing, disintegration and thickness studies etc. among others. Bachelor's degree or foreign equivalent in Chemistry/Pharmaceutical Science or related field and three (3) years relevant work experience required. Multiple positions open. Mail resume to HR Manager, Attn: QAC, KVK-TECH Inc., 110 Terry Drive, Ste. 200, Newtown, PA 18940.